Edward Hopper by Anne Arsenault

EDWARD HOPPER

who painted loneliness

in the city and country empty chairs and empty spaces nothing connecting bright lights don’t stop loneliness it’s not knowing anyone having no one to talk to being all alone

his are not images for weak people you must be strong to look at emptiness in the bar or anywhere is your life filled or empty?

be careful what you look at --